

Fall Community Events 2016 Organized by the Ingram Borough Council

* Council Meetings - 2nd Monday of Every Month - Ingram Borough Building*

Over the next several months, events will be organized to engage our community. The purpose of this effort is to provide a means for our residents young and old to socialize, volunteer and take part in programs offered throughout our community. The information about these events will be communicated via social media (website), Borough Council meetings and flyers.

Outlined below are some of the upcoming events. Stay tuned for more information! For all youth related programs, children must be supervised by an adult in order to participate.
